

2008 LEGISLATIVE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Cracked down on DUIs and gang violence.

Cut sales and income taxes.

Turned back attempts to raise gas taxes.

Comprehensive immigration reform.

Improved local roads to cut down on traffic.

Reformed K-12 school testing.

Fought the influence of special interests in Columbia.

Fought for green space conservation.

Eliminated anonymous budget earmarks.

Expanded health care coverage.

Supported modernizing government through restructuring.

It's my honor to represent you in the legislature, and to present this 2008 update and survey.

My priorities have been to improve Charleston's schools, reduce taxes whenever possible, fight the runaway sprawling growth threatening Charleston County, and put an end to the bitter partisanship that has wounded our democracy.

I hope you'll take a moment to complete and return the reply card so I will know what issues are most important to you.
